

Committee Volunteer Form

We invite you to join a CACEA committee!
Have an impact, expand your network and maximize your membership!

EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The committee develops and promotes educational programs, training and information exchange designed to meet the needs and expectations of all members of the Association. Committee members assist with developing the educational calendar, identifying speakers, seeking educational partnerships and content, and ensuring the association provides valuable and varied content.

Requirements

Must be a voting Member in good standing of CACEA; have a good understanding of the EA audience and their educational interests; a strong industry network; and availability contribute 2-3 hours per month (includes participating in a 1-hour meeting once a month).

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

The committee establishes and executes a strategy for membership recruitment and retention.

Requirements

Must be a voting Member in good standing of CACEA; have a good understanding of the EA career pathway; a strong industry network; and availability contribute 2-3 hours per month (includes participating in a 1-hour meeting once a month).

TECHNICAL COMMITTEE

The committee identify technical issues of concern for EAs; seeks clarity and potential solutions for technical issues; engage with external stakeholders on behalf of CACEA; contribute to the production of relevant reports, documents, FAQs to assist CACEA members to address technical issues and provide knowledgeable service and advice as required and contribute to industry feedback/position requests in a timely fashion.

Requirements

Must be a “Full” Member category in good standing of CACEA; have strong technical and building science background as well as strong expertise in the services and interpretive skills of an Energy Advisor; ability to meet once a month for 1 hour as well as contribute 2-3 hours for committee task force/project work. Engagement with multiple stakeholders an asset.

COMMITTEE INTEREST: Education Membership Technical

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Full Name

Position/Title

Company

Tel

Email

Please email questions and/or forward your completed application to info@cacea.ca.