Remote Home Energy Assessments Pilot: Results and Next Steps

February 1, 2024 @ 1:00-2:00pm EST

This free webinar will delve into the outcomes of the Remote Energy Assessments Pilot, a collaborative project between EfficiencyOne and Climative with on-the-ground experience from energy advisors.

Learn how digital assessment technology will add a new approach to the retrofit value chain to accelerate progress to net-zero homes and how energy advisors can stay ahead of this rapidly changing landscape

Presenters:

Hugh Macdonald, Senior Director, EfficiencyOne
Winston Morton, CEO, Climative

In addition, two of the participating energy advisors – David McCall and Paul Rogers – will share their experience and thoughts.

This event is available to CACEA members and non-members at no charge. CEC = 1

About The Canadian Association of Consulting Energy Advisors (CACEA)

CACEA is a national association that promotes and supports Energy Advisors (EA) across the country. Our mission is to support a sustainable and recognized profession of valued and credible Canadian EAs. We promote the interest of EAs for the betterment of our members – ensuring they are recognized as best-in-class – and supporting energy efficiency and carbon reduction initiatives across Canada to better serve the Canadian homeowners and our stakeholders. CACEA recently introduced their Master Energy Advisor (MEA) credential recognizing highly-experienced EA members.
